Bío 21	Science of the Extreme Life of the Sea
Steve Palumbi	Tues 2:15-5:05	Bldg 60 Room 120	TA: Will Ary
spalumbi@stanford.edu			williamjamesary@	gmail.com
Flow of the day
Lecture 1	60 minutes	Topic 1	2:15	3:15
Break	10 minutes		3:15	3:25
Video of the week	10 minutes	student submitted	3:25	3:35
One question quiz	5 minutes	tweet, email or note card	3:35	3:40
Overall questions and discussion	10-20 minutes		3:40	4:00
Lecture 2 part 1	30 minutes	Topic 2	4:00	4:30
5 minute creative		Plan a product that presents
collaborations		material from today in blog, video,
		newspaper, art, dramatic form etc.
		What will you include? How will
	5 minutes	you present it?	4:30	4:40
Lecture 2 part 2	20 minutes	Topic 2 finale	4:40	5:00

Grading structure and requirements			Fraction
•	1/12 1/27 2/10 2/24
Four one-question-quizes	1/13, 1/27. 2/10, 2/24 Product I - science based		5% each
Three short essays that	description of an ocean	Due 1/27/2014
•	species or lifestyle, in the	Due 1/2//2014
and produce a product for non-scientists	feature.		20% Product II - novelization of an ocean lifestyle, perhaps based on the story in	10-Feb
	Product I		20%
	Product III - Final presenation. Group, multimedia treatment of an ocean lifestyle. Video,	10-Mar
	,music, blog, theatrical,
	podcast, etc.		35%
Active engagement in 5- min collaboratives each week			5%